

1058—THE CHURCH OF THE RECESSIONAL

FROM KODACHROME BY JUSMET

FOREST LAWN MEMORIAL PARK, GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA

The Church of the Recessional was built as a memorial to the life and works of the great soldier-poet Rudyard Kipling. This church is a reproduction of the Parish Church of St. Margaret in Rottingdean, England, where Kipling was inspired to write his famous poem "Recessional"

POSTCARD

PLACE
ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE